

THE Pinc PROJECT

The Pinc Project

Empowering people through community and connection

The Pinc Project is a community group that provides access to activities and support for people who face barriers in daily life. We focus on reducing isolation, improving confidence, and helping people build connections

What We Do

Community Activities

Creative workshops
Peer support groups
Inclusive community events

Practical Support

Information and advice
Signposting to local services
Support to access groups

